DR. MARICAR R. CASQUEJO

Director

Commission on Higher Education - CARAGA

Caraga State University (CSU) Main Campus, Ampayon, Butuan City

Dear Director Casquejo:

MABUHAY!

We would like to express our deepest gratitude for encouraging your teachers, counselors, school administrators, and even representatives from CHED to attend the Annual Conference on Giftedness 2015 entitled "Brilliant Minds, Poor Achievement" this November 2015.

However, due to the "No-Fly Zone" to be implemented on November 17, 19 and 20 and the flight cancellations that have been announced by commercial airlines to give way to APEC visitors, it would be best to move the dates of the conference to November 29-30, 2015.

In this regard, may we request for another REGIONAL Memorandum/Endorsement with the new dates (November 29-30, 2015) of the conference from your good office for the participants to be able know the changes and to be attend the conference.

For more information, you may call or text:

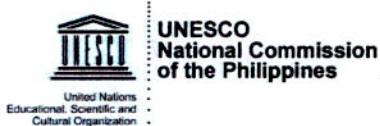

Ms. Ammie Del Rey/Mr. Francis Ballesteros
(+63) 917 868 39 48 or (+632) 544 0352

Thank you very much and we are hoping for your positive response.

Very truly yours,

LETICIA PEÑANO-HO, Ph.D.
President, The Philippine Center for Gifted Education
Commissioner, UNESCO National Commission of the Philippines

This 2-Day Annual Conference is expected to address the concerns brought up during the ASEAN Summit 2014. Dr. Sylvia Rimm, a researcher, psychologist, writer and multi-awarded specialist in gifted education, has been invited to speak on approaches to guide children toward achievement, reverse underachievement, address gender issues in achievement, and social and emotional issues related to giftedness and creativity. Participants will be encouraged to share their own practices in addressing the issue of underachievement.
